

Dmitrii Kim

Dmitrii Kim, preisgekrönter Pianist aus Kaluga, verbringt drei Wochen in der Schweiz und besucht Masterclasses bei Esther Yellin.

Dmitrii Kim, was born 19-02-2002 in Tashkent, Uzbekistan. He began studying music at the age of eight. Now he studies at the Kaluga regional music college named after Taneyev. As a particularly gifted student he was accepted immediately for the 2nd year. Dima has excellent music data: absolute pitch, wonderful pianistic apparatus, rhythm and musical memory. Very artistic. His performance is different in depth, content, subtlety and poetry. The sound is colorful, diverse in timbre respect. Well equipped technically. Every year he performs a large solo program.

Master-classes

Vladimir Mischouk (Russia, Saint-Petersburg Conservatory, January 2016, Sochi)

Yuri Rozum (Russia, Gnessins Academy of Music, November 2016, Kaluga)

Ekaterina Mechetina (Russia, Moscow Conservatory, October 2014, Kaluga)

Alexander Mndoyants (Russia, Moscow Conservatory, July 2016, Sochi)

Tatyana Zagorovskaya (Russia, Saint-Petersburg Conservatory, December 2016, Sochi)

Competitions

1) «Youth Symphony» (Grand-prix in March 2017, performed with the Kaluga Youth Symphony Orchestra first part of Saint-Saëns Concerto #2 g-moll, conductor – Alexander Ghindin. Also, he won 1st prize in March 2015 and 2018)

2) Open International Competition of Pianists and Piano Ensembles „Masterpieces of Piano Music“ Association «Classical Heritage» (Moscow, 1st prize, March 2018). Also, participated in final concert in Rachmaninoff Hall of Moscow Conservatory.

3) Dima is a participant of concert programs of the Spivakov International Charitable Foundation (since January 2018)

4) He is the owner of the nominal scholarship of the Government of the Kaluga region named after N.P. Rakov (2015, 2017)

5) X open competition of young pianists named after M.G. Yuzefovich, M.V. Yuzefovich, N.V. Yuzefovich and N.V. Semenova (Kaluga, 1st prize, March 2015)

6) International television festival contest “Talents of Russia” (Moscow, Grand Prix, 2015)